Antes de empezar

Práctica de comunicación asertiva en inglés (A2) mediante diálogos y juegos de roles para expresar ideas y resolver conflictos.

QUÉ APRENDERÁS

- Interpret role plays in English that promote assertive communication, using polite phrases to give ideas and reach agreements.

Let's act: role plays and assertive communication

What we will do / Qué haremos

Read a short dialogue, learn polite and assertive phrases in English, and prepare a role play that improves communication. Nivel A2.

Assertive communication says what you think and feels, and listens to the other person.

What is assertive communication?

Assertive communication means you say what you think and need in a calm and respectful way. You do not stay quiet, and you do not shout. You use phrases like "I think...", "I feel...", "Can we...?", and you also listen to the other person.

Read a short dialogue

A: "I feel worried about the group project. We still have no plan." B: "You are right. I think we can divide the work today." A: "Good idea. Can we agree who does each part?" B: "Yes. Let's talk and choose together."
